

Best honeymoon places to visit in Kerala

Kerala is God's own country, yet it is not just famous for its spiritual places confined to temples built in traditional Kerala architecture, Churches, Mosques, and other religious places. With the numerous tourist destinations like beaches, wildlife sanctuaries, hill stations, lighthouses, every age group people would wish to have at least one Kerala trip in their life with an inherent desire to explore mother nature.

Apart from tours with families, friends, coworkers, groups, or communities, couples choose to think of it as a wholesome honeymoon package to Kerala due to the aura of its tourist destinations.

Honeymoon Places to visit in Kerala

Some of the best honeymoon places in Kerala that you should consider visiting on your honeymoon.

Munnar

Munnar is located in the Western Ghats mountain range at approximately 1,600 meters (5,200 feet) above sea level. Munnar is famously known as South India's Kashmir and is a favorite honeymoon destination for most nature-lover couples. Many famous travel companies like Arha Holidays design Munnar Honeymoon packages in the best interest of couples.

Munnar is known for its tea, coffee, and cardamom plantations. Walking through the vast expanses of tea plantations, relaxing on houseboats, and exploring the backwaters gives you an unforgettable experience.

Alleppey

Alleppey, commonly known as Alappuzha, is a city on the coast of the Laccadive Sea in Kerala, India. The rustic Kerala backwaters, a network of calm canals and lagoons, are best known for houseboat cruises, which makes this one of the best honeymoon places in Kerala.

Alleppey is a dream honeymoon destination, where you may enjoy a magnificent sunset and see over 1000 houseboats moored on the backwaters. Your stay on the houseboat will be an amazing experience that you will remember for the rest of your life.

Wayanad

Wayanad is a district in Kerala, which is India's southwest state. The Wayanad Wildlife Sanctuary, in the east, is a lush, forested region with high altitude zones, home to Asiatic elephants, leopards, tigers, and egrets. It is a place for nature lovers, where they can view the deep valleys and lush woods covered in towering cliffs at angels, embracing their honeymoon with its aura.

Kovalam

Kovalam is a tiny seaside town in Kerala, which is located south of Thiruvananthapuram and is known for its quiet and gorgeous beaches, but it also offers several other tourist sites that are worth visiting.

Lighthouse beach, Samudra beach, and Hawah beach are three well-known beaches in the coastal resort of Kovalam, which together form a spectacular rocky crescent. The beaches are known for their shallow seas and low tidal waves, where you can see most of the travelers' surfing, and motorboating, so make sure to include it in your honeymoon packages to Kerala.

Kumarakom

Kumarakom is a village located on the Vembanad Lake in Kerala's backwaters. It is made up of a smattering of small man-built islands that have been recovered from the lake. Paddy fields, fishing, a network of backwaters, delicious local cuisine, traditional rice barges, houseboats are just a few of the attractions.

Varkala

Varkala is a town in Kerala, India, which is famously known for its beaches, hill cliffs, lighthouses, lakes, forts, and other tourist destinations. Varkala beach, the only spot in southern Kerala where cliffs border the Arabian Sea and are backed by palm-covered red cliffs. These cliffs are part of the Varkala Deposit, a tertiary sedimentary formation described by geologists. According to the Geological Survey of India, they are geological monuments.

Bekal

Bekal is a small town on Kerala's west coast, located in the Kasaragod district. Old forts, peaceful backwaters, and serene beaches are all part of this town's natural beauty. If you are looking to enjoy nature's beauty having romantic moments with your partner then your search ends at this place due to which is considered as one of the best honeymoon places in Kerala.

Thekkady

Thekkady is a town in Kerala, India, near Periyar National Park, which is a popular tourist destination. The word 'Thekkady' comes from the word 'thekku', which means teak. Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary in Thekkady is one of India's most stunning wildlife reserves, where you can view tea plantations, spice gardens, and lush greenery whilst in your jungle ride. Idukki town, Mullaperiyar Dam are the other attractions.

Poovar

Poovar is a tourist town in Kerala's Thiruvananthapuram district, located in Neyyattinkara. The next village, Pozhiyoor, marks the end of Kerala, which is nearly at the southern tip of Thiruvananthapuram. Poovar is a secluded island, where you can hire a boat to view the mangrove forest. Between August to March is the ideal time to visit Poovar.

Kuttikanam

Kuttikkanam is a hill station located in Peermade's territory at 3,500 feet above sea level and is surrounded by lush green tea fields. This is known to be a popular destination for wildlife enthusiasts, as the region is home to monkeys, tigers, bison, and other animals. Because it is a less-traveled area, you may not encounter many people on your Kerala trip to this location.

Munnar, the ideal honeymoon destination

A honeymoon is a journey that almost every couple dreams about, whether they are newlyweds or have been married for a few years. It establishes the foundation for couples and paves the way for married joy. And a wonderful honeymoon can help you appreciate memories for the rest of your life.

With that said, Munnar can be an ideal destination for your Kerala honeymoon, where you may spend time bonding, relaxing, celebrating as a couple, and reminiscing the best moments in your life, due to which it can be considered as one of the best honeymoon places in Kerala. Owing to its aura, travel companies strive to design the greatest Munnar honeymoon packages.

Munnar is a hill station surrounded by green hills and tea plantations in the Western Ghat mountain ranges. It is known for its panoramic views, which every skilled photographer dreams to capture with their camera.

The weather at Munnar is so cordial with mild summers, cool winters, and moderate monsoon rains favoring the couples' quality time. The average highest temperature recorded during the day is 20 degrees Celsius, but it can drop to 10 degrees Celsius at night.

Some of the exquisite places in Munnar that can indulge great romantic moments between the couple are

- Rose gardens,
- Attukal waterfalls,

- Blossom Hydel Park,
- Lockhart Gap,
- Echo point,
- Photo point,
- Kolukkumalai Tea Estate etc.,

Things to do in Munnar

Some activities will make a Munnar honeymoon incomplete without them

- Watersports in Mattupetty Dam
- Trekking at Lakshmi Hills, Echo point, Thoovanam Falls, Attukal Waterfalls
- Hiking at Anamudi Peak
- Tea Estate Tours in Kolukkumalai
- The ancient Kerala therapy at any ayurvedic spa

There is an unsaid notion that a honeymoon can just happen for the first time and further travel to the destination is just another trip. If you choose to believe such notions then the aforesaid best honeymoon places in Kerala can persuade you to go for another honeymoon. So don't prolong the time in checking the honeymoon packages to Kerala. Happy honeymoon!